

TU DANCE

is pleased to announce its collaboration with

EQUIPOISE

Equipoise is a diverse collective of established professionals offering expertise in relevant areas of the performing arts - supporting and mentoring young dance artists and providing tools and resources to nurture the growth, development, and success of professionally oriented dancers.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

In partnering with TU Dance, Equipoise will provide the unique, hybrid (online/in person), opportunity of having individualized curriculum alongside one-on-one assessment sessions and coaching that compliment and deepen professional training.

WORKSHOPS & SESSIONS

- Self care/Health & Wellbeing
- Self advocacy
- Injury prevention
- Contract fluency
- Personal & professional budgeting
- Resumé preparation
- Audition tips
- Personal branding
- Workers rights
- more

THE EQUIPOISE COLLECTIVE

Alia Kache

Choreographer, Educator, Former Rehearsal Director of Ailey II, Current Swing for Disney's The Lion King (Broadway & Tour).

Ruthlyn Salomons

AAADT, The White Oak Dance Project, Donald Byrd/The Group, Resident Dance Supervisor of The Lion King Broadway Company.

Dr. Carol Marie Webster

Sociocultural anthropologist and performance researcher working at intersections of Arts, Health, Healing and Activism.

Ron Vodicka

Labor Advocate, Lighting Designer. Stage Manager, Production Manager for artists and companies around the world. Currently the PSM for The Lion King on Broadway.

Nina Wurtzel

NYC Dance photographer, NY Times, Dance Magazine, Broadway World, BCEFA/DRA, top dance and theater companies. Former dancer with Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre, and Concouredanse.

Huong Hoang

Producer, Manager, Arts administrator. Currently General Manager at The Joyce Theater Foundation in NYC.

VISIT OUR WEBSITE

Equipoise is a fiscally sponsored project of Unique Projects, Inc., a non-profit organization administered by Pentacle (DanceWorks, Inc.). Pentacle is a non-profit management support organization for the performing arts. Contributions are welcomed.